Tell me gentle traveler, who through the world hast gone,
 And seen the sweetest roses blow,
 And brightest gliding rivers flow,
 Of all thine eyes have looked upon, which is the fairest land?

E. L. Brown 89

By F. B. Courtney, Cedar Rapids, Iowa

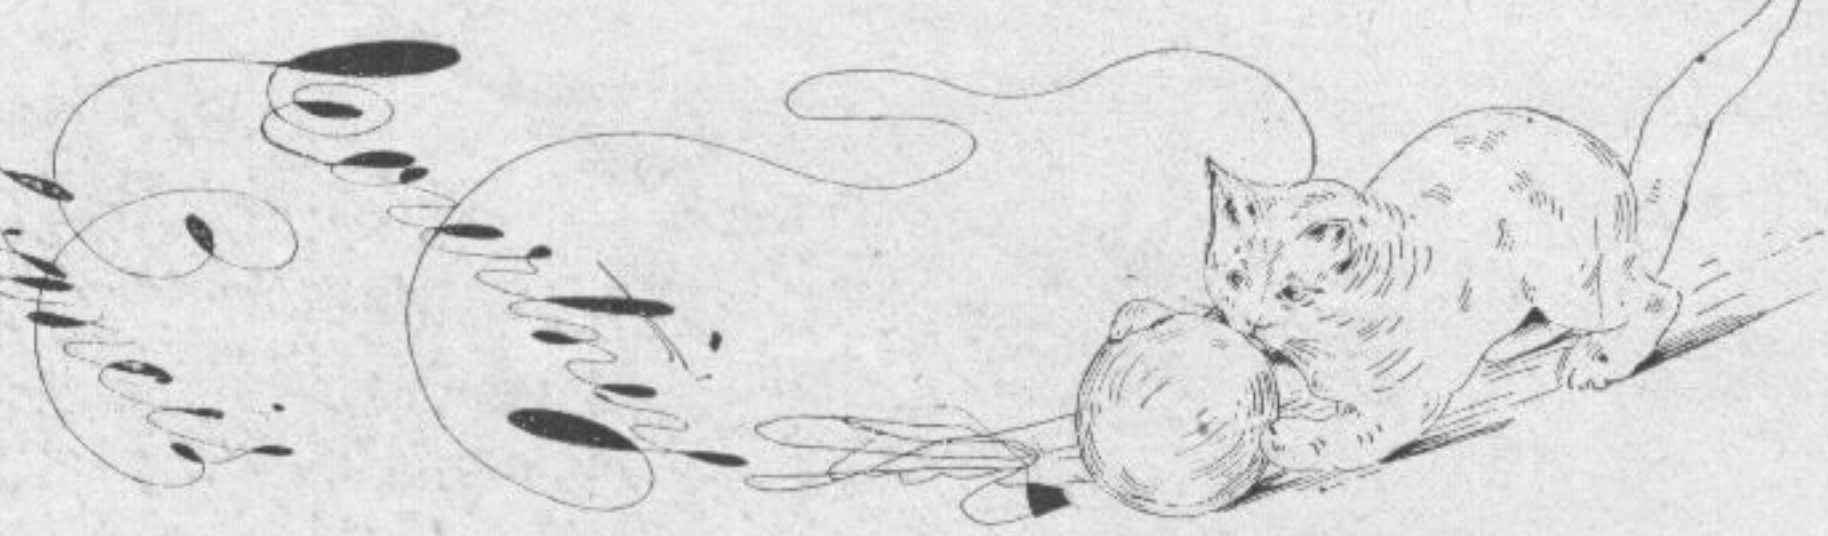

Josh Billings say success dozn't consist in never makin blunders but in never makin the same ones twict. The latter say that you should know things too your advantage and the glove helps u to never do any thing off hand. To meet and greet success u should hav your fist like the button but never be led like the pencil. Always be up to date like the calendar, do a drivin biznes like the hammer and be ever ready too do a good thera for anywar like the crank. Never do biznes on tick like the stock but make the most of your good points like the compass and always do the work for pure soot-ed for like the flue.

He who fills the measure to the brim achieves success which is the reward of faithfulness and evidence of superiority.
